

UPSTATE NEW YORK HOSTA SOCIETY (UNYHS)

WHO WE ARE: The Society was founded in September 1996 as a non-profit educational organization.

GOAL: To promote knowledge and interest in growing Hosta (affectionally known as the "Friendship Plant").

MEMBERSHIP: Over a hundred members from across New York and neighboring states.

MEETINGS: Mostly Monthly throughout the year covering a variety of garden related topics from guest speakers, hybridizers, fellow members and numerous experts.

EMPHASIS: Gather under a congenial atmosphere to share: diverse gardening interests and varied botanical skills, ideas and experiences, to encourage beginners, and to support members as they venture into areas of growing, propagating, and hybridizing Hosta.

DUES: Annual dues are $10.00 and include participation in members only special plant sales, invitations to guest lectures, plant swaps, holiday gatherings, garden tours, an electronic subscription to the Society's periodic newsletter and special notices regarding upcoming events (see Membership Form below).

MEMBER ONLY PLANT SALES: Offset club expenses and provide members the opportunity to acquire new, unique and exotic plants to showcase in their gardens. Many of the more expensive varieties can often be obtained at prices below retail.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS:	Plant Sales	Library Access	Newsletter
	Summer Tours	Door Prizes	Hosta Sitter Program
